With exclusive hire you and your guests are free to wander through the historic house and gardens, which provide beautiful photo opportunities, with the knowledge that Cleeve House is yours for your entire wedding day.

From accommodation to decoration, we are happy to work together with you to create your perfectly personal and beautifully memorable day.

The Library and the Great Hall are both licensed for civil ceremonies, and the Library is also perfect for drinks receptions. The Salisbury Room is a lovely room for dining, with fine views across miles of countryside, and for the evening, the Great Hall is a wonderful grand space for dining, dancing and celebrating late into the night.

You can use any combination of rooms to create your perfect event. For more information on the ground floor rooms, please see the Room Hire page.

Cleeve House also has eight bedrooms to accommodate guests that have travelled far for your wedding. Please see the B&B Accommodation page for more information and pictures.

We are in contact with an extensive range of wedding service providers including caterers, florists, photographers, entertainers and party decorators that we can recommend, or you are free to find and organise all the aspects of your day however you would like.

The flexibility of the venue means you can design your wedding to be as creative and original a day as you have always dreamed of.
